

Read a favorite fairy tale again. As you read, think of the characters in the tale. Which character would you like to know as a friend? To see what you have in common, fill in the Character Chart below. Then use your information to write a friendly letter to the character.

